

Notice of Fraudulent Job Offers

Gordon Food Service's Commitment to Privacy

It has been brought to our attention that there have been instances of fraudulent job offers, that are claiming to be from Gordon Food Service and/or its affiliates (“GFS”). These persons have been offering fraudulent employment opportunities to applicants and often asking for sensitive personal and financial information, including requiring candidates to pay for training or other services and offering to reimburse those costs.

GFS does not collect any financial commitment from candidates or require payment to a third-party as a pre-employment requirement.
